

Common Ground Leadership Seminars

The Alan M. Voorhees Transportation Center and the New Jersey Department of Transportation invite you to three local leadership seminars on creating great places to walk and bike. Each will feature a national expert and panel of local leaders telling their stories. The emphasis will be on problem solving, bring your issues to the panel discussion. These events are sponsored by the Federal Highway Administration.

Walkability & Bicycling

October 29, 2008

Walkability - 9 am to 12:30 pm

Bicycling - 1:30 pm to 5 pm

Keynote Speaker for both seminars:

Michael Ronkin, Designing Streets for Pedestrians and Bicyclists

Community Trails

November 13, 2008 - 9 am to 1 pm

Keynote Speaker: Craig Della Penna

Rail Trail Advocate, Planner and Realtor

Location

Special Events Forum
Edward J. Bloustein School of Planning and Public Policy
Rutgers University
33 Livingston Avenue
New Brunswick, NJ 08901

You may attend one or all of the events
Register by October 15th at rjwill@rutgers.edu
For more information call (732)932-6812 x 590
The event is free, but seating is limited and registration is required.

RUTGERS

Edward J. Bloustein School of Planning and Public Policy

Alan M. Voorhees Transportation Center

U.S. Department of Transportation
Federal Highway Administration