Dear Ms. Alexander,

On behalf of my students and I, we would like to extend our gratitude to Shaquillah McMillan and Larry Lindstrom for their efforts in travel training our students at West Caldwell Tech. It was an absolute pleasure to get to work with both Ms. McMillan and Mr. Lindstrom. They both worked diligently to assist our students to take the next steps in their transition from school to work. Not only were they exceptional with instructing the skill sets and monitoring student progress, but they were also warm, genuine individuals who truly were invested in the success of our young adults. As a result of the training our students received from your staff, they are now able to independently travel to their jobs. As they graduate from high school in the coming months, they will be able to continue to travel and be connected within their communities.

We would also of course like to thank you as the managing director for advocating on behalf of people with disabilities. The work you do is incredibly important and we appreciate your efforts. This has been an invaluable resource for our students and we hope that this is only the beginning of our partnership as we have many students who would benefit from your services.

Sincerely,

Jennifer Guevara
