

Data Privacy Notice for video conference meetings and webinars

Rutgers University-Voorhees Transportation Center (RU-VTC) respects your right to privacy and is committed to protect the confidentiality of your personal information thus has adapted necessary organizational, technical and physical measures to secure it. RU-VTC is bound to comply with the Data Privacy Act of 2012 (RA 10173), its implementing Rules and Regulations and relevant issuances of the National Privacy Commission.

By participating in this video meeting/conference/webinar, you are consenting to our collection (including recording) in accordance with this Privacy Notice. Information is also processed via video conferencing platform Zoom. Please refer to their privacy policy at <http://zoom.us/privacy>.

The information processed: name, title, affiliation, email address, your image, video and audio will be used for attendance, documentation, communication and systems administration purposes by authorized individuals of Department/Office/Unit organizing the event and other offices authorized to have access.

We also use information gathered from you for promoting events and collecting research. RU-VTC shall only retain the said personal information until it serves its purpose, after which it shall be securely disposed of. Queries and complaints on Data Privacy can be directed to the Data Protection Officer at kose@ejb.rutgers.edu.